

LA 1 field work begins!

Dredging, a preliminary phase of the pending LA 1 Test Pile project, is being done to provide deep enough water at 4 locations for barge access to install lengthy test piles for the upcoming bridge.

On-site dredging for the project's test piles in Leeville near the existing bridge officially began on May 7th for the LA 1 Improvements project.

